Published by Authority.

From Tuesday January 22, to Saturday January 26, 1760.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 29th Day of December, 1759,

PRESENT

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majeſty's Proclamation of the 15th of May laſt, "For "giving Encouragement to Seamen and able bodied "Landmen to enter themſelves on board His Ma- "jeſty's Ships of War; for granting Rewards for "diſcovering ſuch Seamen as ſhall conceal them- "ſelves; for pardoning ſuch Seamen as have deſert- "ed and ſhall return into the Service; and alſo for "taking up all ſtragling Seamen," hath been prolonged and extended to the 31ſt of this Inſtant December; — And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majeſty's Service, that the ſame ſhould be continued for ſome Time longer—His Majeſty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His privy Council, hereby Order that the ſaid Time be prolonged and extended from the aforeſaid 31ſt Day of this Inſtant December, to the 11th Day of February next; and that the Bounties and Rewards given and granted by His Majeſty's aforementioned Proclamation, be continued to be paid until the ſaid 11th Day of February next—Whereof all Perſons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themſelves accordingly.

W. Blair.

St. James's, January 26.

The following Addreſs of the Merchants and Traders of the City of Dublin, having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Bedford, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Merchants and Traders of the City of Dublin.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WITH Hearts warm with Gratitude, and over flowing with Loyalty, we the Merchants and Traders of the City of Dublin, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon with our Congratulations for the happy Events of this moſt juſt and honourable War.

The Reduction of Senegal and Goree, of Guadaloupe, Fort du Queſne and Niagara; the Victory of Minden, the Diſappointment of our Enemies in the Eaſt-Indies, their intended Invaſion, the laſt Reſource of a deſpairing Enemy, deſtroyed by the Victories of Lagos and Belleiſle, and the Conqueſt of Quebec, though unfortunately clouded with the Death of its magnanimous Conqueror, have ſtamped ſuch Glory on your Majeſty's Reign, as will render it the favourite Period in the Annals of Great Britain.

Our moſt ardent Wiſhes are ſo largely accompliſhed, that in the Midſt of our Thankſgivings to Heaven, we have but to aſk, that we may be long bleſſed with your Majeſty to reign over us; that your Councils may never want ſuch wiſe and able Miniſters, your Armies ſuch brave and experienced Generals, and your Fleets ſuch intrepid and reſolute Commanders, as make your Majeſty at once the Admiration and Dread of your Enemies, and muſt convince them, that Juſtice is the nobleſt Ally that Princes can carry to the Field.

We in particular doubly acknowledge your Majeſty's Fatherly Care in providing for our Defence againſt the Threats of an inveterate Enemy; the Protection of our Commerce, which we have enjoyed during the Calamities of a War, ſo very fatal to many Parts of the World; the Encouragement of our Manufactures, Navigation, and Agriculture; and the many ſalutary Laws enacted by your Majeſty during the Adminiſtration of a Deſcendent of the great Lord Ruſſel, whom your Majeſty has appointed to preſide over us at this critical Juncture.

In Return for theſe Manifeſtations of your Majeſty's Royal Goodneſs, we beg Leave to offer our moſt ſincere Aſſurances, that when Occaſion ſhall call us forth, we ſhall be found ready to ſacrifice our Lives and Properties in Defence of your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Illuſtrious Family.

The following Addreſs of His Majeſty's Conſul General and Britiſh Merchants reſiding at Liſbon, having been tranſmitted by Sir Harry Frankland, Bart. His Majeſty's Conſul General at Liſbon, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Conſul General, and Britiſh Merchants reſiding at Liſbon, preſume to intreat your Majeſty's gracious Acceptance of our warmeſt Congratulations on the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in the ſignal Advantages obtained by your Fleets and Armies, during the Courſe of this juſt and neceſſary War, particularly on thoſe great and important Atchievements, which will render the preſent Year of your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, as memorable as the moſt Illuſtrious in the Britiſh Annals.

Permit us to aſſure your Majeſty, that we cannot reflect upon the late Succeſſion of Glorious Victories, without being touched with the deepeſt Senſe of our Obligations to that paternal Care, which has concurred with Divine Providence in fruſtrating the Deſigns of our inveterate Enemies, and crowning all our National Expeditions with Succeſs.

The important Victory in the Plains of Minden, the Succeſs in the arduous Enterprize againſt Quebeck, and the late ſignal Defeat of the French Fleet on the Coaſt of Britany, which compleats the Deſtruction of the Naval Power of France, are Events which afford us Matter of Exultation, not only as they are productive of the greateſt Advantages to your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, but as they add new Luſtre to the Diadem of a King, whoſe Royal Virtues ties have long ſince ſecured him the unbounded Affections of his People.

Suffer us, moſt Gracious Sovereign, to extend our Wiſhes, that your Victories and Triumphs may ſtill continue to accumulate till the deſired End be accompliſhed, of obtaining an honourable and laſting Peace.

It is with the higheſt Admiration of your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Goodneſs, we obſerve, that your Subjects at home, happy under your benign Government, and ſafe from the Inſults of their Enemies, enjoy at once the Bleſſings of Peace, and the Triumphs of War; while thoſe, who are abroad, have the utmoſt Reaſon to aſſure themſelves, that by Favour of your Royal and Paternal Protection, the Rights and Immunities of Britiſh Subjects will be firmly ſupported in diſtant Realms, and ſecurely tranſmitted to future Ages.

Liſbon, Dec. 20, 1759.

Whitehall, January 26.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to grant a Penſion of 2000 l. per Annum to Sir Edward Hawke for his Life, and for the Lives of his two Sons, and the Survivor of them.

Admiralty Office, January 25, 1760.

PUrſuant to an Act of Parliament paſſed in the Twenty-ſixth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, That Information has been ſent to this Office, that on Thurſday the 27th paſt, the Galliot Anna Maria, of the Burthen of about 150 Tons, with a Rudder Head, adorned with the Heads of a Man and a Beaſt, and an Eagle on Top guilded, loaded with Tobacco, was found floating on the Tide about two Leagues from St. Martins, one of the Scilly Iſlands. No Papers were found on Board to give any Intelligence from whence or where bound, nor any living Creature; but ſhe is ſuppoſed to be Dutch Property, and to have come from ſome Port in England.

General Post-Office, August 20, 1759.

Publick Notice is hereby given, That, for the Time to come, no Person whatsoever will be permitted to pass from England, in any of the King's Packet Boats, stationed at Harwich or Dover, without first obtaining a Passport from one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

All Persons, intending to return to England in the said Packet-Boats, are in like Manner to produce a Passport from His Majesty's Minister at the Hague, or from His Majesty's Consul or Vice-Consul at Flushing, before they can be received on Board.

By Command of the Post-master General,
Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.

Office for Sick and Wounded Seamen, and for Exchanging Prisoners of War, Nov. 17, 1759.

Whereas Desertions from Parole among the Prisoners of War now admitted thereto in several Parts of the Kingdom, have been, and continue to be very frequent, and whereas there is Reason to believe such Prisoners have met, and do meet with Assistance from some of his Majesty's Subjects and others residing within this Kingdom, some of whom have been prosecuted to Conviction, and Prosecutions are carrying on now against others, and whereas adhering to the King's Enemies by giving them Aid or Comfort, either within his Realm or elsewhere, or the Concealment thereof, are the highest Crimes; the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen, and for Exchanging Prisoners of War, do hereby Promise a reasonable Reward to any Person by whose Means any such Prisoners of War shall be apprehended, or by whose Discovery any of His Majesty's Subjects, or any Person residing within this Realm, shall be convicted of aiding and assisting, directly or indirectly, the said Prisoners of War in their Escapes from Parole, or of proving them to be so aided and assisted, or of affording them, directly or indirectly, or of procuring them to be afforded, Comfort and Harbour in or after such their Desertions from Parole, or by any other Means aiding and assisting them in such Desertions and Escapes; and the said Commissioners do hereby further give Notice, that all and every such Person or Persons so offending against their Allegiance and the Laws of this Kingdom, will be prosecuted as the Law directs.

Free British Fishery Office, Royal Exchange, January 24, 1760.

The President, Vice-President, and Council of the Society of the Free British Fishery give Notice, that a General Court will be held at this Place, on Friday the 8th of next February, at Eleven in the Forenoon, to receive the Society's Accounts, and to consider the State of the Fishery.

By Order of the Council,
John Lockman, Secretary.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Companies of His Majesty's Ships undermentioned, who were actually on board at the retaking the Anna Maria, on the 14th of April 1759, that they will be paid their respective Shares of the said Recapture as follows, viz.

The Essex, on board the Formidable at Plymouth; the Pallas, at the said Port before she proceeds to Sea; and the Chatham, upon her Arrival at ditto.

The Jamaica Sloop upon her Arrival in Port; and the Shares not then demanded, will be recalled the last Tuesday in every Month at the French Horn in Crutched Fryers, for three Years after Payment is made on board, and the Lists returned to London.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of His Majesty's Ship Leverpoole, Richard Knight, Esq; Commander, that were on board at the taking the Novelle Hirondelle, a French Privateer, that they will be paid the nett Proceeds of her Hull and Bounty on board the said Ship at Portsmouth before her sailing; and the Shares not then demanded may be received the first Thursday in every Month for three Years afterwards, at the Navy Coffee House in Crutched Fryers.
